

Postcards Victoria

Arty feel takes you to heart of action

THERE is always something new to discover in Victoria and today's episode of Postcards at 5.30pm on Channel 9 will bring you five of the hottest new attractions around the state. From Wild Dog Winery in Gippsland to the revamped Middle Park Hotel and Barkers Wine Bar a little closer to home, Melbourne Zoo's Todman shows us around her property and accommodation at Highbank.

A little closer to home, the Postcards team checks out the new Cullen Hotel.

latest attractions and even a visit to Kyneton, where Tonia

STYLE: A suite at the Cullen Hotel.

Part of the Art Series Hotel Group, the Cullen is the first of three unique, modern boutique residences to make its presence felt among celebrities and the general public alike.

Named after one of Australia's most famous artists, Archibald Prize winner

Adam Cullen, this five-star property is in the heart of Melbourne's funky shopping and food precinct Prahran and offers everything guests may need for short or long-term stays, including an inhouse gallery of sorts, where seven of Cullen's original artworks are on display.

There are 115 rooms and six different room styles, ranging from studio rooms to two-bedroom suites, each with a state-of-the-art kitchenette and a mini bar stocked with Prahran Market treats.

Today's Escape winner will be able to experience the Cullen firsthand, including two nights' accommodation in a studio suite with late checkout of 1pm, the package valued at $1178. To enter, call 1902 552 403 or SMS 1995 2403 your name, address and daytime phone number.

Calls through 5th Finger are 55¢, including GST. Higher from public/mobile phones. Phone lines close at noon on Tuesday.

Entrants must live in Victoria and be over 18. Terms and conditions apply. Prize subject to availability and blackout dates apply.

For information on Postcards email Jo Ramage at postcards@nine.com.au or log on to www.visitvictoria.com/postcards More: www.artserieshotels.com.au or 9098 1555.